

Regional School-Age Care Quality Meetings

August 14 – Orlando

August 21 – Tallahassee

August 28 – Miami Gardens

In collaboration with the Agency for Workforce Innovation's Office of Early Learning, the ELC of Orange County, the ELC of the Big Bend and the ELC of Miami-Dade Monroe counties are pleased to present three Regional School-Age Care Quality Meetings. These meetings, designed for Afterschool Site Directors & Administrators, Afterschool Providers, and Early Learning Coalition Staff/Trainers, will provide updates on afterschool projects and initiatives happening Statewide, as well as feature a 5-hour in-service training. Each meeting will provide identical information and training. Please register at least one week prior to your selected training date. The cost of the training is FREE; however you must pre-register. Please direct your questions and registration to the Early Learning Coalition in the county you select to attend.

Who should register to attend:

Afterschool program directors and staff of all venues (Boys & Girls Clubs, child care centers, faith-based programs, family child care providers, Parks & Recreation programs, 21stCCLC programs, School-based programs, YMCAs, etc.), as well as Early Learning Coalition staff/trainers.

Regional School-Age Care Quality Meeting Training Hours:

Saturdays listed above, 9:30am – 3:30pm, with a one hour lunch break, on own. Please arrive by 9am.

Presentation Information:

Jenn Faber, State School-Age Services Coordinator at AWI-OEL, will present a brief Afterschool Update, along with information on Standards for Quality Afterschool Programs, Lesson Planning for Educational Outcomes, Positive Communication with School-agers, Helpful Homework Hints and Family/Community Involvement.
